Skewers of Halloumi, pickled onions and caramelized heirloom carrots, honey and almond dressing

Serves 6

Ingredients

12 pieces of halloumi cut into approximately 2cm cubes

24 cocktail pickle onions

12 heirloom carrots caramelized in honey and butter then cut into 2cm lengths

12 x 15 cm bamboo skewers

125g almonds chopped

50g butter

1 tablespoon chardonnay vinegar

juice of 1 lemon

100mls olive oil

Method

Place 1 piece of halloumi followed by 1 cocktail onion followed by one piece of carrot on a bamboo skewer. Repeat the process so you have 2 pieces of each ingredient on a skewer then dress the remaining skewers and set them aside.

To make the dressing place the almonds and butter in a saucepan over medium heat. Cook until the butter starts to foam and turns brown. Add the honey and bring everything to the boil. Reduce the liquid by half then add the vinegar and lemon juice and reduce by two thirds. Remove from the heat and allow to cool. Once cool add the olive oil.

To serve heat the BeefEater barbecue to medium high heat. Once hot lightly oil the skewers then char grill until the halloumi is golden. Arrange on a serving platter and dress with the honey and almond dressing.

Grass fed sirloin with a leek and mushroom reduction

Ingredients

3 tablespoons fish sauce
1 garlic clove, minced
1 teaspoon minced pickled chilli
1 tablespoon olive oil
6 x 220 grams grass fed Black Angus sirloin steaks
Reduction
100 grams butter
1 leek, finely cut into rings
2 cloves garlic, minced
4 cups (1L) beef stock
250 grams mushrooms, sliced 3mm wide sea salt
pepper

Method

Heat BeefEater Discovery Barbecue or BUGG to medium to high heat. Combine marinade ingredients, add sirloin and mix well. For medium rare, cook sirloin for 3 minutes on each side. Remove and allow to rest for 5 minutes before serving.

To make reduction, place large saucepan over medium heat. Add butter, leek and garlic to pan and cook slowly until leeks start to caramelize. Add beef stock and reduce by half.

Meanwhile, cook mushrooms over chargrill at high heat. Once cooked, add mushrooms to sauce and serve with steak.
